Shower Policy

To prevent moisture damage and maintain a clean-living environment, the following guidelines must be followed:

- The shower curtain must remain inside the tub while showering.
- The shower walls and bathroom floor must be dried after each use.
- After showering, the bathroom door should remain open
- After showering, the bathroom fan should be turned on to help reduce moisture buildup.
- The shower must be cleaned regularly using disinfectants and cleansers to prevent grime, soap scum, and buildup.
- Maintaining the shower area is a shared responsibility among all roommates.

Failure to follow these guidelines may result in property damage fees, as improper care can cause mold, mildew, and permanent staining.

CLEANING CAPTAIN

All residents must take part in the Cleaning Captains program. This initiative ensures that all residents enjoy clean and welcoming housing, as well as tidy shared spaces. Each resident is assigned a task to complete two nights a week, which must be finished on the designated night. After completing your tasks, it is essential to have a staff member from the Kenny Fort office signs off on your completion to prevent incurring a fine of $25.00 for any missed shifts.

Purpose:

To maintain a clean, safe, and welcoming living environment for all residents, ensuring health, comfort, and respect for shared space.

1. General Expectations

    - All residents share responsibility for keeping common areas clean and tidy; therefore, everyone is expected to clean after themselves.

    - Personal belongings should not be left in any of the common areas including laundry rooms

2. Common Areas (Kitchen/Dining/Living Room/Hallways/Stairwells/Laundry Rooms/Public Restrooms)
    - Please dispose of all your waste in the trash cans
    - Rinse sink, wipe down tables, counters, stovetops, microwaves, and oven interior after use
    - Sweep the floor if you make a mess
    - Oversized and heavy waste should be disposed of in the dumpster rather than being placed on top of trash bins or counters in the kitchen
    - Flush toilets and urinals
    - All waste must be placed inside the dumpster, not left on the side

3. Shared rooms

Daily

- Rinse sinks and wipe counters after use.
- Wash and store dishes
- Flush toilets and urinals after each use.
- Keep restroom floor dry

Weekly

- Scrub sinks, toilets, and showers with disinfectants.
- Sweep and mop floors with approved cleaning solution.
- Empty refrigerator of expired food, clean and disinfect
- Clean microwave

Note: Trash must be emptied before it overflows

COMMUNITY POLICIES

B. Assess for any damages of a current resident or after a resident has vacated or evicted

C. Silence a disruptive noise in the absence of occupants of the room.

D. We may also enter your room for a noise complaint to investigate from inside your room if the suspected room does not answer the door.

Property can be searched, seized and removed from your Personal property and room by Kalahari Management and security, if /when:

A. It constitutes an imminent danger

B. It is Kalahari owned property or

C. It is an unauthorized animal/pet.

D. Illegal drugs and or Alcohol that are in violation of Kalahari rules and regulations.

CONSOLIDATION

Kenney Fort Housing will make ongoing efforts to maximize occupancy in each room. As such, each resident could be subject to move during their stay. You will receive a 24-hour notice to transfer rooms. Thank you for being cooperative during this time.

If there is an empty bed(s) in the room, residents must:

Keep the unoccupied bed(s) and that portion of the unit free and clear of any personal items. This space is property of Kenney Fort Housing and should remain in a condition that allows the new resident to check in at any time even on short notice. Please be ready and willing to accept your new roommate, for a positive experience for everyone.

ROOM CHANGES

There is a $75 charge to change rooms. If you wish to move, contact Kenney Fort Housing staff immediately. Room changes are not guaranteed, and all changes must be approved by staff prior to changing rooms.

LOCKED OUT

- If locked out during regular hours notify Kenney Fort Housing staff. You may borrow a key from the office to let you into your room, but it must be returned right away.
- If locked out during the hours, notify security to let you in. You will be required to provide identification.
- If you lost your key fob, then there will be a $25 fee to make a new one.

USE OF KALAHARI RESORT AMENITIES

Use or possession of resort amenities (shampoos, cups, any item that are provided for Kalahari Guests in the Guest Rooms (including waterpark wristbands) is not allowed.

Employees selling, or found in possession of, water park wristbands will be evicted and may be charged with theft in accordance with Federal and State Laws. Their employment might also be terminated.

EMERGENCY SITUATIONS

In an emergency, YOUR safety is most important, and not the safety of your things. For your convenience each room has a removable Emergency Action Plan located on the back of your door. Please review and follow these guidelines.

Severe Weather Emergency

Stay inside and take shelter. Move to a 'Safe Zone', the first-floor hallways, kitchen, and public bathrooms have been designated the 'Safe Zone' for this building. In a lightning storm, avoid contact with water or electrical power. Keep yourself informed by watching the local news or the weather channel.

Watch: Bad weather conditions are possible in the specified area

Warning: Bad weather conditions are expected

Fire Alarms and Fire Evacuation

If you notice a fire:

· Pull the closest alarm!

· Yell for help!

· If conditions are not safe evacuate out the nearest exit and wait for instructions before re-entering building.

· If safe to do so use the fire extinguisher to put out the fire.

· Notify Emergency Police and Fire by dialing 911 then call 512-284-7334 to notify the Kalahari Resort Operator

If the Fire Alarm Sounds:

· Evacuate out of the nearest exit and wait for instructions before re-entering the building.

· If you notice open flame notify Emergency Police and Fire by dialing 911 then call 512-284-7334 to notify the Kalahari Resort Operator.

Power Failure/Outage

· After hours notify Kalahari Resort Operator at 512-284-7334 or dial 0 from any hallway phone.

· Either stay in your room or meet in public space.

· Kenney Fort Housing Staff or Security will be present in community area with updates.

· You may use flashlights or cell phones for light. DO NOT use an open flame such as a candle for light.

Active Shooter

· When it is safe to do so call for Emergency Police 911 then call 512-284-7334 to notify Kalahari Resort Operator.

· Evacuate the area if there is a safe path.

· If you are in a room, stay there and secure the door and windows.

· Hide in an area out of the shooters view.

· Silence your cell phone and/or pager.

· As a LAST RESORT, to protect yourself, attempt to take the active shooter down. According to Homeland Security your best chance of survival is to incapacitate the active shooter until police can arrive.

Bomb Threat

Upon receiving a bomb threat (by phone, text, e-mail, etc.) or you have suspicion of an unattended package please take the following steps:

1. Immediately move away from the area—evacuate the building–go to the evacuation meet up location.

2. Silence all radios and cellphones while leaving the building

3. When at the evacuation location—if you can safely do so call 911 then Kalahari Resort Operator at 512-284-7334

DISCIPLINARY PROCESS

1st Offense — Verbal Warning — issued by either Kenney Fort Housing Staff or Security. Review of the violation will take place.

2nd Offense — Written Verbal Warning — issued by either Kenney Fort Housing Staff or Security. Violators will again review the offense together and then sign an agreement that they understand what will happen if the same choice is made again.

3rd Offense — Final Written Warning and Fine — is issued by either Kenney Fort Housing Staff or Security. Violators will be required to attend a meeting with the Manager of the property, then sign a written warning stating that they understand that they will be evicted from housing and possibly terminated by employer if they violate another policy or rule.
Sponsor and employer will be notified of the violations. A $25 administrative fine will be issued.

Eviction: Your sponsor and employer will be notified immediately. If issued by security after hours you will be processed the following morning. You must return key fob, and return all items given to you at check in. Prepaid rent and deposit will not be refunded to you.

*Sanctions will be administered based on severity of the offense as determined by Kenney Fort Housing Management.
